

Resources used in this program, and other recommended resources

Adrian Bruce is a teacher. He has set up a website to share some of his wonderful games. They are free to access and use, but he requests a small donation or a book be sent for his class. If you google him he is easy to find.

Lanchane, S. "Sounds Abound Storybook Activities" East Moline USA: LinguSystems 2002

Note: This book can be ordered from GCF Book services Ph/Fax 02 97850648. It is a great book to help in the teaching and practice of phonemic awareness skills. These guys have a lot of other wonderful books.

Love, E. Reilly, S. "A Sound Way Phonological awareness- activities for early literacy" Melbourne: Pearson Education Australia 2004

Note- this can be bought at most good educational stockists, or from Silvereye educational publications Ph 0249339797 Fax 02 4933 9798

NSW Department of Education "Programming and strategies handbook"

Note: There are many amazing and easy to use ideas in this book. They are in every school. It is not just useful for years three and five- but for every grade.

Sparkle box- If you Google sparklebox, you will find a UK website that has some fantastic downloadable games and activities. Some are free, and some need to be paid for.

Smart Kids have some FANTASTIC board games that can be purchased at reasonable prices. There are games at different levels, covering vowel sounds, rimes, syllables, letter pattern, plurals, prefixes and suffixes, homonyms and many many other skills. There are six games in most of the boxes. Ph 02 9415 4080 Fax 02 9884 9998
